GENERAL ORDER NUMBER 1 (GO #1)

TITLE: Prohibited Activities for Multi-National Division-North (hereinafter referred to as "Task Force Marne")

PURPOSE: To identify conduct that is prejudicial to the maintenance of good order and discipline of all forces and personnel assigned to or present in Task Force Marne.

AUTHORITY: Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), Title 10, United States Code, Sections 801-940; and United States Central Command (USCENTCOM), General Order Number 1B (GO-1B), dated 13 March 2006.

APPLICABILITY: This General Order is applicable to all United States military personnel, and to all civilians, serving with, employed by, or accompanying the Armed Forces of the United States, while present in the Task Force Marne AOR, except for personnel assigned to: Defense Attaché Offices, United States Marine Corps Security Detachments; sensitive intelligence and counter intelligence activities that are conducted under the control of the Chief of Mission/Chief of Station; or other United States Government agencies and departments. This General Order also applies to all United States military personnel, and to all civilians, serving with, employed by, or accompanying the Armed Forces of the United States, while under the operational control of the Commander, Task Force Marne and present for duty in Kuwait or Iraq. Such duty includes, but is not limited to, pre-deployment site surveys, leader reconns, and advance party deployments. This General Order is not applicable to personnel located outside the CENTCOM AOR.

1. STATEMENT OF MILITARY PURPOSE AND NECESSITY: Restrictions upon certain activities are essential to fostering US / host nation relations and the combined operations of US and friendly forces. In addition, the high operational tempo combined with the hazardous duty faced by Task Force Marne Soldiers and other US Forces in the Task Force Marne AOR make it necessary to restrict certain activities in order to maintain good order and discipline and ensure optimal readiness.

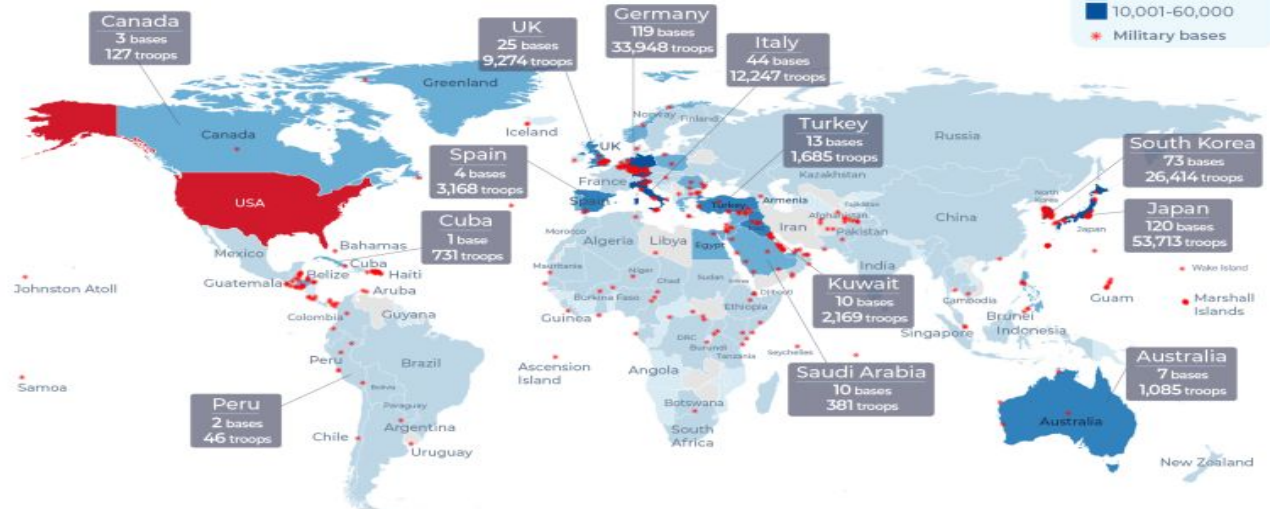

2. PUNITIVE ORDER: Paragraph 3 of this General Order is punitive. Persons subject to the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) may face administrative, nonjudicial or judicial action under the UCMJ for violating this Order. Civilians serving with, employed by, or accompanying the Armed Forces of the United States in the Task Force Marne AOR may face criminal prosecution, adverse administrative action, termination of employment, or redeployment for a violation of this General Order. In the case of contingency contractors, DOD Instruction 3020.41, dated 3 October 2005, provides guidance on administrative actions.

3. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES: In accordance with and in addition to USCENTCOM GO-1B and MNC-1 GO-1, the following activities are prohibited:

 Military Separation Checklist

- * We left home as teenagers or in our early twenties for an unknown adventure.
- * We loved our country enough to defend it and protect it with our own lives.
- * We said goodbye to friends and family and everything we knew.
- * We didn't get enough sleep.
- * We didn't earn a great wage.
- * We experienced the happiness of mail call and the sadness of missing important events.
- * We didn't know when, or even if, we were ever going to see home again.
- * We grew up fast, and yet somehow, we never grew up at all.
- * We fought for our freedom, as well as the freedom of others.
- * Some of us saw actual combat.
- * Some of us dealt with physical warfare, most of us dealt with psychological warfare.
- * We participated in time honored ceremonies and rituals with each other, strengthening our bonds and camaraderie.
- * We counted on each other to get our job done and sometimes to survive.
- * We have dealt with victory and tragedy.
- * We have celebrated and mourned.
- * When our adventure was over, some of us went back home, some of us started somewhere new..
- * We share an unspoken bond with each other, that most people don't experience, and few will understand.
- * We speak highly of our own branch of service, and poke fun at the other branches.
- * We know however, that, if needed, we will be there for our brothers and sisters and stand together as one, in a heartbeat.
- * Being a Veteran is something that had to be earned, and it can never be taken away.
- * It has no monetary value, however, is a priceless gift.
