Program Areas

- Advanced Manufacturing
- Cybersecurity
- Information Technology
- Data Analytics

Training Goals

- New Talent
- Upskilling
- Reskilling

Targeted Participants

- Unemployed and underemployed
- Veterans, military spouses, and transitioning service members
- Incumbent workers
- High school graduates
- Community college students
- ASU students

ASU Arizona State University

AZNext

Workforce Training Accelerator Partnership

U. S. Department of Labor-sponsored program developing sustainable workforce training infrastructure, paid internships, apprenticeships, train-to-hire programs, boot camps, and simulated work experiences intended to create talent solutions to meet industry needs.

Programs Launched/In Design

Program	Occupation Areas	Audience	Content	Status
Business Analysis Fundamentals - IIBA Entry Certificate in Business Analyst	Entry Level Business Analyst	Arizona residents	Train participants in the practical application of business analysis and provide knowledge needed in order to pass the IIBA Entry Certificate in Business Analysis (ECBA).	Launched September 2021
ASU Salesforce Developer Academy	Salesforce Developer	Arizona residents	Provide the participant with real world experience using Salesforce's proprietary Trailhead learning system with experts in developing salesforce applications. Leading to a Salesforce Platform Developer 1 Certification	Launched December 2021
Industry 3.0 to 4.0 Partnership with Maricopa Community Colleges	Manufacturing Operations	Arizona residents	Innovative partnership with MCC to cover a spectrum of manufacturing training from basic (Industry 3.0) courses like Electrical Systems to advanced (Industry 4.0) courses such as Smart Factory. All following the SACA certification framework.	In Development Launching Summer 2022
Cybersecurity Hands On Problem Solving (CHOPS)	Security Operations Center	Arizona residents	Designed to provide viable entry level training in cybersecurity SOC, with potential to expand into apprenticeships leading to advanced Security credentials	In Development Launching Summer 2022
IT Analyst/Support Specialist Apprenticeship	Computer Network Specialist, Support Specialist, Network Technical Analyst, Systems Specialist, etc.	Current ASU students	1 year minimum of ASU degree curriculum (IT, information systems, etc.) and supplemental coursework in specific technologies.	Programs registered, first employer signed and open to more.
Tech Project Coordinator	Information Systems Project Manager, IT Program Manager, Technical Project Coordinator, etc.	Arizona residents	8 weeks of upfront training in CompTIA IT Fundamentals (ITF+) and Project+ certifications, and 1 year of paid on-the-job training with an employer partner.	Launching June 2022, 3 sessions per year
Google IT Support Specialist	IT/Help Desk Support Specialist, Network Support Specialist, Computer User Support Specialist, etc.	High school degree equivalent or above	Six online, self-paced courses toward the Google IT Support Certificate, as well as supplemental industry material that is aimed at giving you the best preparation possible to begin a career in Information Technology.	Launched Spring 2022