Background and Eligibility of Readjustment Counseling Services

The Vet Center Program was established by Congress in 1979 out of the recognition that a significant number of Vietnam era veterans were still experiencing readjustment problems. Vet Centers are community based and part of the Department of Veteran Affairs.

In April 1991, in response to the Persian Gulf War, Congress extended the eligibility to veterans who served during other period of armed hostilities after the Vietnam era. Those other periods of armed hostilities after the Vietnam era. Those other periods of armed hostilities are identified as Yugoslavia, Lebanon, Grenada, Panama, Persian Gulf, Somalia, Korea, World War II, American Merchant Marines, Operations Joint Endeavor, Joint Guard and Joint Forge, Enduring Freedom, Iraqi Freedom, and Global War on Terrorism.

The Veterans Health Program Act of 1992 authorizes counseling for veterans who have experienced acts of sexual violence or harassment while on active duty.

Vet Centers also provide Bereavement counseling for parents, spouses and children of Armed Forces personnel who died while in service to their country. Family members of Reservists and National Guardsmen who die while on duty are included.
